Feb: 24. 1907.

My dear Uncle, Aunt & cousins.

I am just going to write a few lines to let you see that I have not quite forgotten you, although it may seem like it. I should very much like, to have the money, so that I should be able to come over and see you all, just to see if you are like, what I picture you to be. Trade and work of all kinds is very bad here so bad that if you

2
once get out there is no knowing when you are going to get in. Our oldest boy has been out for a good time, but I am very glad to say, he has just obtained some, working for a baker.
I suppose you know that hundreds of people are going to Canada so that if many more goes Bristol will be empty. I hope your work is alright because I know it must be very bad for the head of the house to be out, although ~~we~~ have never experienced it, but we dont know how soon we might

3 I suppose you hear from Aunt Mery sometimes, we dont have so much as we did, I suppose she is married by now she has not sent to let us know, but it was to have been in January. I hope you are saving up all your money, and then you will be able to come to my wedding in a few years, my sweetheart is on an engine learning to be an engine-driver so he travels about a good bit, I often wish I was with him because I have never been far out of Bristol so I have not seen much of the world. I enclose a small photo of him and myself so that you can see what he is
